

COSMIC TUNE - SONOTEST

Indicator of Subtle Energy Levels

Cosmic Tune Sonotest is an Indicator of levels of Subtle Energies. The tube of the Sonotest is hit with a little drumstick, this creates a cosmic sound tune. It is close to a A sharp or La sharp of 1905 Hz or 1905 beats per second. This cosmic sound frequency is in harmony with our solar system viewed from the earth.

By moving the Sonotest in front of the whole body, it sounds out and diagnoses the energy levels. When the Sonotest sounds and you move it around the limits of the energy fields, the sound level changes due to resonance. You can hear the differences in resonance and in the energy level of the sound.

The Sonotest is a harmonic music instrument.

The harmonic cosmic tune creates an intelligent and detectable sound response around it that you can hear, feel, share and analyse.

The sonotest can be used to scan your body in front of from top to feet, it scans the energy levels of the chakras or energy spots you find connected to your body.

You can use the sonotest to scan once body before and after a healing practice and diagnose the improvements on energy level.

The sonotest itself can be used too as a care instrument to energize the body or spots on your body while ringing. In the time you hear and scan your body it increases the energy levels where you stay longer with the cosmic tune.

The end of the tube is particularly energetic, in the length of the extension of the end point of the tube there is much energy shining that can be used for diagnosis or for cares and therapy.
